Rayburn Plugs for Passage of Rights Measure

WASHINGTON (AP)—House Speaker Rayburn said today he favors House approval of the Senate-passed civil rights bill, including the jury trial provision.

If necessary, Rayburn said at a morning news conference, he would be willing to modify the jury trial provision to limit it to voting cases only.

The fate of the bill in the House rests largely with the Republicans, he added.

In order for the House to consider the bill, Rayburn pointed out, the Rules Committee must give its approval and Republicans "will have to get a rule to take up the bill and concur in the Senate amendments."

There are high Democrats and four Republicans on the Rules Committee and four of the Democrats are opposed to the bill. That means that at least three of the four Republicans would have to favor the measure to provide a majority for clearance of the bill.

Rayburn said "the people down town" referring to Eisenhower administration officials "put a lot of other things" in the bill besides voting rights.

"If these people are for a right-to-vote bill," he added, "they have an opportunity to get it now."

Rayburn's willingness to restrict the jury trial provision to voting rights cases strengthened indications, already apparent, that a compromise might be upcoming.

Normal procedure would be to seek a House-Senate compromise of differences, but some Democrats have been talking of trying to push through the Senate measure, thus forcing President Eisenhower to sign or veto the bill.

No House action was in prospect before next week.

Part of the Democratic strategy appeared to be to catch House Republicans in an embarrassing political squeeze, with a choice of accepting the best bill they can or holding out for President Eisenhower's program.

A top House leader said the fate of any civil rights legislation now rests with the Republicans.

House GOP Leader Martin of Massachusetts said he would recommend a veto of any bill that fails to meet Eisenhower's idea of a bill he could sign. Eisenhower has criticized some of the provisions the Senate wrote into the bill.

"We want it to go to conference and we want to get a workable bill," Martin said.

With strategy still undecided, the immediate problem appeared to be one of timing and parliamentary techniques for bypassing roadblocks in the way of sending the bill to a Senate-House conference.

Hot Springs Man Takes Own Life

He was Jack Squires, a retired restaurant man.

Funeral arrangements were incomplete.

Cotton Meet Aug. 15 on Burke Farm

Research in cotton production being conducted on the Jesse C. Burke farm about eight miles northeast of Hope may be observed Thursday morning, August 15, at 10 o'clock by a field meet arranged by County Agent Oliver L. Adams.

The cotton research on the Burke farm is being conducted by certain staff members of the University of Arkansas College of Agriculture as a part of the work of the Southwest Branch Experiment Station with Cecil M. Bittle, Assistant Director in Charge.

The field meet Thursday will show the progress of the research work now being conducted that should give cotton producers their fair chance for profit includes work on insecticides, systems of fertilization, and varieties. Some of this work is outstanding and could be of much value to Hempstead County and southwest Arkansas cotton producers.

As boll weevils, boll worms and aphids and now with us in many fields in increasing numbers and more expected during the next several weeks, the Thursday morning field day at the Burke farm could prove of much immediate value. With the great number of newer insecticides and other formulations on the market, the seeing of results and the hearing on use by the research people who help determine the more efficient use, the immediate and planning information could prove very profitable.

For additional information on the Thursday morning field meet, contact the Extension Service office in the County Courthouse.

Ark-La Buys Serval Plant in Indiana

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. has announced the purchase of two Serval, Inc., gas air conditioner plants at Evansville, Ind.

In a joint announcement yesterday, Ark-La and Serval gave the purchase price as five million dollars, with one million to be paid off at $200,000 annually.

Serval announced that stockholders will be asked to authorize the transaction.

Serval will be retained as a consultant by Ark-La for five years.

Included in the purchase agreement are the properties of the Serval Air-Sea Gas Air Conditioning Division and the buildings of Serval's Defense Division.

The Division, which will be a wholly owned subsidiary of Ark-La, will continue operations at Evansville. However, W. R. Stephens of Little Rock, chairman of the Ark-La board, said the gas company hopes to set up a branch factory in Arkansas when sales volume expands and a new assembly line is feasible.

Stephens and Ark-La President J. C. Hamilton of Shreveport, La., said the purchase was in line with the gas company's program of diversification and expansion.

Credits Football With a Big Share of Success

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—A young fellow named Peter Palmer has a sure fire recipe for losing weight—get a top part in a Broadway musical.

"I weighed 300 pounds as a college freshman," said Pete, who stands 6 feet 4 and plays the title role in "Li'l Abner."

"I weighed 245 pounds when I was studying music and playing tackle on the University of Illinois football team. But after laying 'Li'l Abner' some 350 times, I'm down to 215 pounds."

"My old coach, Ray Elliot, told me, 'Son, if I could have gotten out in this kind of shape, you'd have made the All-American.'"

The quick rise to fame of this big young singer, who is as likable in real life as he is in the role of Dogpatch he portrays in one of those swamps songs that make Broadway folk themselves believe Broadway has a heart.

After leaving the university—Pete played in the 1952 Rose Bowl contest, sang the "Star Spangled Banner" in football uniforms before home games—he won a Chicago radio station's singing contest and went to California.

In 1954 he met Miss Jackie Gleason, secretary for actor Mark Stevens but no relation to the overweight comedian, and they were married. Then Uncle Sam gave him the nod.

It was while he was singing on Ed Sullivan's all-GI show in June, 1954, that the producers of "Li'l Abner" spotted him. Three weeks later, parted from the Army, he went into rehearsal.

Pete, who is only 25, remains a bit dazed at the sudden spin of life.

Wilson Gave Pentagon Much Trouble

By D. HAROLD OLIVER
WASHINGTON (AP)—Charles Edwin Wilson will be leaving Washington in a few weeks having survived some turbulent times in his 4 1/2 years as secretary of defense.

The stocky, white-haired, 67-year-old former president of General Motors resigned Wednesday, President Eisenhower, nominated another big business man, Neil H. McElroy, of Cincinnati, to succeed him.

Wilson will stay on a few weeks longer to help McElroy get acquainted with the complex job. Then he will take a vacation and what his outspoken wife Jessie terms a well-earned rest.

When Eisenhower picked Wilson for his Cabinet shortly after the 1952 election, the automobile magnate commented, he would leave the Pentagon job "the dirtiest wheel it ever had."

Martin will agree he did just that, and made a good job of it. Some times he had more money than he asked for. At other times, as at present, he was forced to make some cutbacks, when Congress gave him several billions less than he wanted.

Some critics were saying last year that he had outlived his usefulness. But most will no doubt agree that his salty and outspoken though at times admittedly "incomplete" remarks will be missed and the capital will be the duller for it.

Pair Admits Spying, Get Sentences

NEW YORK (AP)—Jacob Albam, 64, a former Brooklyn tea and spice dealer, and Mrs. Myra Sobie, 52, were sentenced to 5 1/2 years in prison each today for spying for the Soviet Union.

Her husband, Jack, 54, a third member of the espionage ring, was to be sentenced later. He was not in court.

All three had pleaded guilty.

Mrs. Sobie, plump and dark-haired, wiped her eyes with a handkerchief as sentence was pronounced. Albam, a bald man with glasses, seemed stunned at the sentence.

Sobie was not in court. He is being held in custody.

Counsel for Mrs. Sobie and Albam asked leniency for the two defendants, contending that they did not play important parts in the conspiracy.

U. S. Delegates In Russia May Go to China

By STERLING SLAPPEY
MOSCOW (AP)—About 40 American delegates to the Communist-sponsored World Youth Festival to be held in Peking, China, and at least one appeared to be on the verge of defecting to the Soviet Union.

There is a State Department ban on travel to Communist China.

The man reported to be planning defection was described by a dependable source to be a veteran of World War II in his early 30s. He may already have taken the initial steps. His name was not immediately divulged.

The American has not been seen in the U. S. delegation's hotel for more than two days. Several of his friends said he was in an ill state of mind, with grippe and no one could see him.

Two other American delegates told other Americans they were thinking of staying here for "study" when the festival ends Sunday.

Five Violent Deaths in Arkansas

By The Associated Press
Five persons died violently in Arkansas yesterday—three of them in separate highway accidents near Benton and an invalid woman died in a house fire early this morning.

The invalid woman was Allene Harmon, 40, of near Lincoln, some 20 miles west of Fayetteville. Her mother, Mrs. Grace Harmon, led two small children to safety but was unable to save her daughter.

The Benton area accidents occurred within a 7-hour period. Henry Otis Tucker, 55, fell from a truck driven by his brother, Ernest Tucker, when the truck and a car collided. State Trooper Wilbur Hileman said.

Hileman said that 22-year-old James Daniel Bealy of Mountain View was struck and killed by a trailer truck as he was standing on U.S. Highway 67 shortly after another minor accident.

Hileman said that Perry Crites, 72, of Mena lost his life when his pickup truck fell a curve on U.S. Highway 70 eight miles south of Benton and overturned.

A woman identified as Patricia Motley, 35, of North Little Rock was killed in a wreck on State Highway 7 about four miles south of Hot Springs.

Billy Daniels, 2-month-old Negro boy of De Witt, died in a fire that destroyed his home. Authorities said that his mother, Mrs. Flossie Daniels, saved several other children.

More Data on Payment to Dio Sought

By NORMAN WALKER
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate rackets committee sought more information today on a labor union $16,000 payment to mobster Johnny Dio. Dio refused to discuss the transaction, saying it might "incriminate me."

Robert F. Kennedy, the committee's counsel, called Earl E. Harte, retiring president of the Allied Industrial Workers. This is the union that sent Dio the money.

Dio invoked the Fifth amendment 140 times as a witness yesterday. He refused to answer questions about his labor union connections and alleged "close friendship" with Midwest Teamster boss James B. Hoffa, the man expected to succeed Dave Beck as Teamsters president.

Among matters that Dio refused to talk about was a $16,000 check given him by the UAW-ADL in September 1954 and signed by Anthony Dorigo, then the UAW-AFL's secretary-treasurer.

Dorio, who has involved in a Senate investigation of labor union welfare fund scandals a few years ago, recently quit as the AIAW's secretary-treasurer. Kennedy said Dio was paid some $30,000 for stepping out.

When Dio refused to acknowledge his signature on the $16,000 check, Kennedy said Dio had explained it as repayment of money Dio had "invested" in UAW-AFL Local 102.

Legislators in State Against Special Session

By LEON HATCH
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A sampling of opinion from members of the Arkansas House and Senate indicated today there is very little enthusiasm among legislators themselves for a special session of the General Assembly to try to solve the Highway Commission's financial problems.

However, most of the legislators who could be reached said they would agree to the proposed session if it were the only way to remedy the situation.

There were wide individual shadings in the viewpoint expressed but the consensus seemed to be summed up by Sen. Mack West of Pottsville who said he would "favor a special session only as a last resort."

Rep. Knox Kinney of Forrest City replied with an emphatic "positively no" when asked if he wanted a special session, but most lawmakers said they would reluctantly support the special call if it were necessary to avoid serious curtailment of highway construction.

The legislators on the whole were chary of any attempt to fix blame for the present situation. Those who expressed an opinion mainly did so in mild and general terms.

Perhaps the strongest legislative self-criticism came from Rep. Norman Wimpy of Jonesboro, who said he thought the blame for a shortage of funds now threatening highway construction should "be placed equally on the shoulders of Gov. Orval Faubus and the Legislature." Wimpy said he thought highway legislation passed at the last session was "ill considered and not studied out."

Others, including Rep. Dan Wolf of Hot Springs, blamed the Highway Commission. Wolf said the commission should "have seen five months ago" that it would be short of funds and should have tailored its construction program accordingly.

No one suggested throwing out the Highway Commission—a difficult procedure under the present set-up—or any sweeping changes in Highway Department personnel.

Most legislators avoided any answers on just what should be done to get more money for the Highway Department—something the commission says is needed to assure that all available federal funds during the next two years may be matched by necessary state money.

Proposals for an increased gasoline tax or more bond issues met with general opposition, and the customary reaction was that the question of where the money was to come from was one that could be answered only after more study.

Fish Farm Bill Very Doubtful

WASHINGTON (AP)—A member of the House Merchant Marine and Fisheries Committee said today that it was doubtful if the group would hold hearings on a fishing farming bill so late in the session.

The bill, introduced by Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark) and passed by the Senate, would establish a research program to determine the feasibility of raising fish in relation with rice. The program might be conducted by the University of Arkansas since Arkansas is the largest fish farming state and has a large rice acreage.

The measure has not yet been submitted to the House committee. House action on the measure before adjournment appears unlikely, the committee member said.

Residents of Cameron, La. Leave Quickly

LAKE CHARLES, La. (AP)—The whisper about tropical storm Bertha swept into the isolated and devastated Cameron area, and this time the people left.

"My husband wouldn't have stayed now," said Mrs. Paul Nunez, the wife of a Grand Chenier grocer. "If they had told him, he would have eaten the rope off."

Mrs. Nunez and her husband, stayed in Grand Chenier when "Hurricane Audrey" hit southwest Louisiana June 27. She lost her mother and seven other members of her family. As she spoke about leaving this time, she tightly clutched the hand of her young grandson.

But not everyone left the area. Latest evacuees drove north to Lake Charles with the story of at least one old man who has decided to stay in Cameron, even if Bertha hits it.

"Bertha just can't be any worse than Audrey," they quoted him. His identity was not learned.

Audrey's winds and tidal waves killed more than 500 persons and wrecked almost all the homes in the coastal area of Cameron, Grand Chenier and Creole.

75 mph Winds Cause Many to Flee Homes

By JOHN CORPORAION
NEW ORLEANS (UP)—A Gulf storm named Bertha grew into a full-fledged hurricane today, and sent rising tides against the Louisiana-Texas coastal region that suffered heavily from Hurricane Audrey in June.

Hundreds of persons living in lowland areas of the irregular Louisiana coastline fled to higher ground, as the storm blossomed into a 75-mile-an-hour howler. The Red Cross opened refugee centers in Lake Charles and other south Louisiana cities.

The Coast Guard said high tides at San Luis pass, 25 miles south of Galveston, Tex., stranded several persons in a car and house trailer. Rescue units were sent to their aid.

The Weather Bureau, using strong language to warn the threatened areas, said in a 10 a. m. CST advisory that "Hurricane Bertha threatens the west Louisiana and upper Texas coasts from Galveston to Vermilion Bay."

"Safety precautions should be initiated now," the advisory said. At 10 a. m. CST, the hurricane was centered about 140 miles southeast of Lake Charles. It packed winds estimated at 75 miles an hour—barely hurricane strength—within about 30 miles of its center and gales spread outward 100 miles from the vortex.

A disabled tugboat, the "Whitman No. 3" was reported caught in rough waters of pass a loutre in the Mississippi Delta with possibly three men aboard and a coast guard cutter went to its aid.

The hurricane pushed 3 to 6 foot tides ahead of it with "its strong winds."

Hurricane-conditioned residents had been swiftly moving to safety since early yesterday when Bertha was classed as only a tropical storm.

Sheriff O. B. Carter of Cameron Parish, where more than 500 died in Hurricane Audrey June 27, said his parish was almost completely evacuated "and the people needed no prodding to move them out."

"Hurricane Bertha threatens the west Louisiana and upper Texas coasts from Galveston to Vermilion Bay," the Weather Bureau said. "Safety precautions should be started now. Tides will reach 5 to 6 feet in an area between Galveston and Sabine, Tex., and 3 to 5 feet eastward to Vermilion Bay. Winds and high tides may begin by this afternoon and at latest by tonight."

"That'll be put for the course—three in three years," he said cheerfully. "That's what a dumb Protestant gets for marrying a smart Catholic. But that don't mean we'll be through with having kids. I like being a family man."

"My brother married a Catholic girl, too. They've had four children in five years."

"What does your brother do?" "He's a guided missile engineer," said Pete.

"But I owe a lot to football. It's been a real inspiration to me. It gives you a lot of hard knocks and a disarming sense of humor. But it teaches you to give and take."

"Pete, who drives home from the theater each night, isn't particularly worried about the future. He figures he has another year in 'Lil Abner,' hopes he may get to play the same role in the movie version, feels if he doesn't something else will come along.

"You never worry about the game two weeks from Saturday," he said. "You can only play one game at a time."

"The only thing I ever worry about is my family. Sure, we're having fun now. But I don't have any more fun than I did a year ago in the Army."

"My wife and I get along wherever we are."

St. Louis and Braves to Fight It Out

By ED WILKS
Of The Associated Press

What are those other National League contenders trying to do, jure the Milwaukee Braves into a false feeling of security?

Any way you look at it, the scramble suddenly has opened up and the Braves are on top with a "whopping" 2½-game lead—their largest of the season. The made it as Cincinnati rolled over again, 8-3, yesterday and the seventh-place Chicago Cubs topped the second-place St. Louis Cardinals 4-3 for a three-game sweep.

Third place Brooklyn is five games back, skidding with a 12-3 elobbering from the New York Giants. Cincinnati and Philadelphia now are tied for fourth, seven games behind, after the Phillies defeated Pittsburgh 6-3 while the Redlegs lost for the 11th time in 2 games with Milwaukee this season.

If this is the breakup in the NL log jam, the Braves should know by Sunday night—after a three-game set at St. Louis.

In the American League, Washington made it two in a row over New York 6-1 and trimmed the Yankees' lead to five games as Chicago's second-place White Sox defeated Kansas City 7-4.

Baltimore gained fifth place from Detroit by defeating Boston 8-1 while the Tigers lost to Cleveland 3-1.

Red Schoendienst, the second baseman who was supposed to have brought the Braves the pennant along with his bat and glove when the Giants traded him to Milwaukee June 15, got the job done yesterday. He fired a two-run single in the eighth, breaking a 3-3 tie and bringing Lew Burdette his 10th victory.

Ex-Brave George Crowe hammered his 24th home run and Frank Robinson swatted his 18th in the eighth to junk a 3-1 Milwaukee lead. Reliever Raul Sanchez lost it loading the bases with two walks and a hit batsman ahead of Schoendienst's hit.

The Cubs won six in a row for the first time since 1955 with a two-run seventh against southpaw Wilmer Mizell that cracked a two-all tie. Singles by Moe Drabowsky, the young right-hander who won his eighth, and Bobby Adams brought in the runs. Dave Hillman blanked the Cards after relieving Drabowsky when a walk and two singles gave the Cards a run in the eighth. Del Ennis had a two-run homer for St. Louis while Stan Musial had two singles and regained the bat lead at 3-3. The Giants completed a sweep of the last three games in the four-game set with the Dodgers by scoring four runs in the first against ex-pal Sal Maglie. They had 14 hits in all, counting home runs by Willie Mays (26) and Hank Sauer (16). Ruben Gomez won his 12th with a seven-hit job.

Philadelphia gave Curt Simmons a 6-0 lead with three runs in the sixth, two on Gran Hamner's home run, but the southpaw needed relief help in the ninth to win his 11th. Bob Miller nailed it, after Bob Skinner's home run triggered a three-run Pirate rally. Vern Law lost it.

Russ Kemmerer had given the Yankees only five singles and led 6-0 going into the ninth. Then a single, walk and Enos Slaughter's double saved New York from what would have been its second shut-out of the year. Art Ditmar lost it.

Billy Pierce, the AL's only 15-game winner, gave way to Gerry Staley when the A's scored one in the fourth and cut Chicago's lead to 6-4. Staley blanked them on five hits the rest of the way for a 3-0 record. Earl Torgeson, 3-for-4, drove in five runs and hit a pair of homers—the first a three-run shot in a five-run third against wi loss Rip Colman.

Sunday School Lesson

By William E. Gilroy, D. D.
The Old Testament Books of Samuel, Kings, and Chronicles offer a great deal in the history of Israel that is interesting for the sociologist and student of political institutions, in addition to their moral and religious teachings.

Various democracies have settled, or attempted to settle, great questions concerning kings and rulers in their own way. There is also the question of the rule of priests, or religious leaders, the so-called "theocracies," that at various times have been attempted and that mostly have failed.

The direct rule of God through self-appointed agencies, I think it might be said, has failed, though the agents may have been deeply sincere.

The Plymouth Pilgrims, who might have attempted such a theocracy, gave their colony a very human basis in the Compact they drew up in the Mayflower. New England might have been spared the shame of various persecutions, particularly of Baptists and Quakers, if the later colonists had had respect for a similar pact.

The outstanding examples of the attempted rule of a prophet and priest is in the case of Samuel in Israel. There can be no doubt of the fact that he was a strong, noble, and dedicated leader.

He was born to the praying Hannah, who kept her vow to devote him to the service of the Lord. He grew up in the temple under the watchful guidance of Eli, the high priest, and eventually escaped the scandal and corruption of Eli's sons, though his own sons turned out badly (Samuel 8:1-5). Their rascality had much to do with the demand of the people for a king.

It is noteworthy that this demand came when Samuel was old. It is also noteworthy that Samuel regarded the demand as a distinct repudiation of divine prophetic words that might well stand as an indictment of what kings to a great extent have been. See Samuel 8:10-18 for those devastating words.

The power of kings has been greatly curtailed, especially in our own time. Under so-called limited monarchy the rule of parliament and people has become firmly established in Great Britain. My own life has been lived in equal portions in Canada and the United States, and I have had unusual opportunity for observing the working of democracy on both sides of the border.

In the main, the impact of public opinion upon legislation

DOROTHY DIX

Wife Pays While Husband Plays After Honeymoon!

Dear Dorothy Dix: My husband died suddenly, leaving me with three small children. I had never worked before, but with God's help I got a job for eight years kept a home for the youngsters. Believe me it wasn't easy. Then I met a nice man, dated him for about a year and married him. Then I really had trouble. He had a good job at the time of our marriage, which he quit as soon as the wedding bells had died down. He wanted to go somewhere else where, he thought, his chances would be better, so I sold my house and we moved on. Then, in quick succession, he was served a warrant for back alimony (I knew he had been married before, but didn't know his support payments were so large), was taken sick and went to a VA hospital, where I was told his only trouble was the inability to face responsibility. He had an automobile accident that ran into some money (money I had to borrow since his credit is nil).

As a fitting climax, he's been seeing his ex-wife on very familiar terms. My children are almost ready for college. Alone I could finance them, with my husband's debts and responsibilities I cannot. He brings in very little money, and that all goes into back debts. What can I do with him? — ROCHELLE

Dear Rochelle: It appears that you not only acquired an irresponsible husband, but also took on obligations for his first family since you work to pay his support money. As far as his ex-wife is concerned, you pay while he plays. Do you realize that you're being doublecrossed with your own money? Get wise, get out from under!

Dear Dorothy Dix: I'm in love with Paul, but he claims he can't make up his mind about me. Should I hang on or give up? — KITTEN

Dear Kitten: He'll never come to a decision as long as you're available. Give up and let him have a dose of uncertainty.

Dear Dorothy Dix: My great ambition is to be an author. I'm 23, have a high-school education and have written several stories and poems. However, I have no idea how to contact a publisher. Could I have my manuscripts read, criticized and corrected? Any information will be welcome. — TRUDY

Dear Trudy: For very complete answers to your problems, get a copy of THE WRITER a magazine published at 8 Arlington St., Boston 16, Mass., and one of the WRITER'S DIGEST, published at 22 East 12 St., Cincinnati, Ohio. Sample copies are, I believe, 25 cents.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I'm a divorcee of 42, and recently met a man who seems to be crazy about me. He says I will be his some day, but time will work it out. He knows my kids come first with me, so he feels it would be best if he doesn't see me too often. Do you think time WILL work things out? I've asked him to stop encouraging me if he really doesn't care. — UNHAPPY LOU bringing romance is most. Your sweetie must have a very convincing line; don't dangle on it too long. Find out what he does with himself evenings — it may be revealing.

Dear Dorothy Dix: My girl friend is having a barbeque at the end of the month and I'm supposed to bring a boy. The boy I dated during school time lives a few miles away, so I don't see him now. Would it be all right to call or write, inviting him to the party? — JAMIE

Dear Jamie: It certainly would. The "no phone, no write" rule only applies to nuisance calls.

Football Season Opens With the All-Star Game

By TED SMITH

CHICAGO — Tonight's 24th annual All-Star Football Game pits the slugging running attack of the New York Giants against the untested passing offense of the college players.

The Giants, National Football League champions, are favored over the All-Stars by 10 points in the season's first big griddon encounter.

The game will be televised by ABC at 7:30 p. m., CST.

This is an enthusiastic bunch of collegians who have been working out under Coach Curly Lambeau. Never has an All-Star squad boasted such top-flight passers as John Brodie of Stanford, Lennie Dawson of Purdue, Jim Harris of Oklahoma and Paul Hornung of Notre Dame. Since the Giants line is big and tough — and led the NFL defensively last season — it seems only logical for the collegians to pin all their hopes on passing.

To back up the passing threat the college team has some fine breakaway runners in Jim Brown of Syracuse, Tommy McDonald of Oklahoma, Jon Arnet of Southern California and Clarence Peaks of Michigan State.

It is this strong collection of offensive talent that prevents the Giants from being overwhelming favorites. Conceivably, if the All-Stars could score early on a pass or a long run, they might be able to go on the upset the big pro champions.

The Giants, on the other hand, have lost only Rosy Grier at tackle out of their great 1936 team that swept to the NFL crown by beating the Chicago Bears 47-7 in the championship game.

Group Trying to Keep River Same

Memphis — An 11-barge task force moved up the Mississippi today to begin five months of work aimed at keeping the rebel river from making any drastic change in its bed.

The U. S. Engineers Bank Protection Party No. 11 makes its first stop at Tamm Bend in Lauderdale County, Tenn., about midway between the state's north and south boundaries, to fix a mile of crumbling bank.

The barge house giant cranes, draglines, supplies and a crew of 180 men. The towboat handling this load is the 2,400 horsepower Sotterville, the Memphis district's most powerful vessel.

The task force concentrates on grading caving river banks into smooth slopes, where necessary, the slopes are reinforced with concrete to prevent further inroads.

Cpl. W. P. Jones Jr., district engineer, said present plans include work at some 30 locations on both sides of the river between Cairo, Ill., and the mouth of the White River, which empties into the Mississippi near Arkansas City, Ark.

The Louisiana Purchase was a tract of a million square miles of land which the United States bought for 15 million dollars from France in 1803.

Heart and Akin in TV Fight

CLEVELAND, Ohio — Upstart Garnet (Sugar) Hart has "both hands primed" to detonate the bombshell punches of veteran Virgil Akins when their scheduled 10-round television welterweight battle gets underway at Public Hall tonight.

Hart, a 20-year-old Philadelphia slugger who is bidding for a secure spot in the top 10 with a record of 22 wins in 24 bouts, will face the crossroads of his short but brilliant career against the powerful Akins.

"I can do just as well with either hand," Akins warned his 29-year-old St. Louis opponent. Not even the odds-makers argued that point, making Hart an 8 to 5 favorite in his argument that 10 knockouts in 24 fights is big time calibre.

O GOD of NATIONS

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to lead the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we wish our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

© Williams Newspaper, Fort Worth, Tex.

Today the 'Great God of Nations' is pleading for unity of mind, for brotherly love between men and for peace on earth. Jesus the greatest of teachers presented to men truths, which were then as they are now, of great importance to all mankind. His utterances, without revision, are most pertinent to modern life and make universal appeal. In them are heights which no man has scaled; depths which no man has sounded; reaches of length and breadth which no man has explored. Universally the need for blessings from the great 'God of Nations' has never been so great. He commanded men to learn of Him and promised to show them the way.

Pastors, Priests and Rabbis are pooling their interests in an effort to challenge All Nations to an understanding of the term 'Peace.' Prayers from millions of earnest seeking, warm hearted, religious people, go up to the great 'God of Nations' every day for those men who are entrusted with our destinies.

Millions are now saying of Jesus: "There was the true light, even the light which lighteth every man, coming into the world." Whether judged by subject matter, the method of its presentation, or its effectiveness in influencing life... Jesus enjoys pre-eminence among teachers. If men would but seek out His will; if world leaders would but ask His guidance when difficult, international problems arise... then solving them would not be such a surprise, for in Him men of faith find all things possible.

Food Costs Up But There Are Bargains

By The Associated Press
Food costs are still inching up but there are bargains to be had if you look for them.
Best buys in meat this weekend will include smoked picnic hams, chuck roast, hamburgers, spare ribs, bacon, and most cuts of veal. Likewise attractively priced are roasting turkeys and frying chickens.

Beef prices continue to move up. While veal is a bit higher in some areas, it's still one of the better buys.
Egg prices have turned around and are again heading lower. Some of the big food chains have slashed prices of large white eggs as much as five cents a dozen and medium-sized whites as much as six cents.

Budget-minded shoppers will also find a wide variety of frozen fish to choose from. Some of the more prominently mentioned "specials" are frozen fish sticks and frozen salmon steaks.

Fresh fruits and vegetables are available in great abundance this week.
Outstanding buys include cabbage, yellow or green squash, bunched beans, yellow onions, tomatoes, potatoes, radishes and scallions.
Listed as fairly good buys are peppers, egg plant, cucumbers, yellow sweet corn, California long white and Idaho early red potatoes, Chinese cabbage and California Pascal celery.
Cantaloupes are a little higher in price this week but still a good buy.
Dairy products are in great abundance right now — production of butter and cheese is way up but people are eating less.
